

Doing business in Pakistan – opportunities for UK companies with Lord Green, Minister for Trade & Investment

Lancaster House, Stable Yard,
St James's London,
SW1A 1BB.

10 February 2011, 10:00 – 13:00
(followed by networking lunch).

Bilateral trade between the UK and Pakistan is worth over £1 billion annually. Over 100 UK companies already operate successfully in the market.

This event will highlight business opportunities in Pakistan for UK companies with informative talks by Lord Green the Minister for Trade and Investment, leading business people with knowledge of the market and by the British High Commissioner to Pakistan. Representatives from the Government of Pakistan will also be present.

Why attend this event?

- Identify opportunities for your business in Pakistan
- Hear market views from the UK's High Commissioner to Pakistan, HE Adam Thomson and business leaders with experience of the market
- Understand the procurement process and aid funded business/ infrastructure opportunities in Pakistan
- Hear about investment opportunities for UK companies as Pakistan rolls out its privatisation programme
- Learn more about the support available to UK companies seeking to do business in Pakistan

Programme

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 09.30 – 10.00 | Registration |
| 10.00 – 13.00 | Full programme of speakers and themed breakout sessions, including the keynote address by Lord Green, Minister for Trade & Investment, and presentations by UK High Commissioner to Pakistan, HE Adam Thomson, Pakistan High Commissioner to UK, HE Mr Wajid Shamsul Hasan, business leaders with experience of the market and Juan Miranda, the ADB's Director-General for Central and West Asia. |
| 13.00 | Networking buffet lunch |

To register for this free event email: pakistan@uktieventsteam.com